Have a reluctant reader?

The 39 Clues by Patrick Carman is a new series that many of the 4th and 5th grade students are reading. This series is full of mystery and suspense as Amy and Dan, brother and sister, uncover the mystery as how their parents really died. They risk their lives to uncover the many clues. As a reader you are asked to uncover the clues and log into their website.

Please share with us other books your child has been reading.
